“ I worked with Judy for more than 12 years and she was always great to get along with. I remember back on December 31, 1999, Judy, Harriett, and I were working at midnight to see if our computers would work on January 1, 2000. Y2K was a big Nothing Burger! Judy was a great person, who inspired others, and I always enjoyed being around. She will be truly missed by many.
