“ Kay and her brother, Danny were a part of our family. Danny was "road dog" of my oldest brother. Kay and I were classmates in high school. She was always happy and joyful with her friends. The entire class loved and enjoyed her company. Never a dull moment with her. Will see her in heaven.....

“ Love to all the family. She was like a sister to all the Bludworths. We will miss her bright loving presence in our daily lives, but know she is with loved ones and without pain.
