“ You have my heartfelt sympathy in the passing of Kenneth, I know he will be missed by all. There is no way I can really express my feelings except to say the Lord knows best and He is always with us in our time of sorrow. Remember to continue to look towards Him in all things. Wish I could be with the family in person, but am unable to do so. My prayers are with all of you. My God bless.

“ Words can not express our sorrow, there are thousands of tears shed for the loss of this wonderful man, with whom we had the pleasure of spending our Sunday's with over the past few years. Kenneth has always been the sweetest friend to Gary and I and such a wonderful life companion to Donna. Our hearts are deeply broken. He will be highly missed! God Bless the Gallups family! You are all in our prayers!
