“ My deepest condolences to the family. I had the honor of meeting Kim in High School and have known her ever since. She was one of my dearest friends. We lost touch for a long while, but bumped into one another a few years ago and chatted every so often. I can say this from talking and knowing her....She was as loyal as they come and a more fierce competitor you will never meet. Kim loved her husband with all her heart and enjoyed their time together no matter what they were doing. She was looking forward to growing old with Don. She said her greatest joy and best achievement in her life were her children, Ty and Ash ! She gushed about them whenever we spoke. She was so proud of each of them and the way they lived their lives. Kim also loved her Mom, Dad, Amy and family. She always wanted them to be proud of her. I reminded her they were. She was strong in her faith and knew she would go to heaven, but she was more worried about the ones she was leaving behind. Just know that each of you now have an Angel watching over you forever.
