

Lana C. Polk

August 18, 1966 - January 8, 2025

Lana Carol Polk, born on August 18, 1966, age 58, passed away peacefully at home on January 8, 2025, surrounded by family and friends who loved her dearly. A visitation will be held from 12:00 p.m. until 1:00 p.m., Saturday, January 18, 2025, at The Church at Chelsea Westover. The funeral service will follow at 1:00 p.m. at the church with Bro. Chris Harris officiating. Burial will follow at Liberty Baptist Cemetery.

Lana Polk is preceded in death by her husband: Brian Polk; her parents: Douglas and Ann Roberts; her brother: Douglas Roberts; and her sister: Denise Roberts.

She is survived by her children: Ashley Ayers (Cody), Noel Ellis (Caleb), Nathan Polk (Kelsey), and Shawna Cowden (James); her grandchildren: Charlie and Addy Ayers, and Wyatt and Cash Ellis; several nieces and nephews; as well as many treasured friends and loved ones.

Lana lived a life marked by unwavering kindness, selflessness, and a deep, abiding faith in Jesus Christ. Lana had a heart of gold. She welcomed anyone and everyone into her life, always ready to offer a kind word, a helping hand, or a comforting embrace. Her love knew no bounds, and she poured herself into those she cared for with limitless compassion. Many people who were fortunate to know Lana considered her a second mother, as she embraced and nurtured “her children” in countless ways—whether through advice, love, or simply being there when needed.

Her warm presence and giving spirit left an indelible mark on all who encountered her. Whether through her family, friends, or the many lives she touched throughout her life, Lana's legacy is one of love, acceptance, and service.

Above all, Lana was a faithful follower of Jesus. Her unwavering faith was a guiding light in her life, and she sought to live in a way that reflected His love and grace. Her example of faith, love, and generosity will continue to inspire all who knew her.

“ Our hearts are broken. I know I’ll see her again in Heaven, but my selfish heart wants her here.

Lana, your kindness, joy, and unwavering faith were a light to everyone who knew you. You had a way of making every person feel special, seen, and loved. When I needed you most, you were right there. Whether through your smile, your encouraging words, or your quiet acts of generosity, you left an imprint on my heart.

I will always remember your steadfast love for Jesus, and your precious family. You lived with grace, humility, and a sense of purpose that inspired me. Thank you for being a true friend, a confidant, and a source of comfort and laughter.

Your legacy will live on in the lives you touched and the love you so freely gave. I will miss you deeply but hold on to the hope of seeing you again. Until then, I’ll carry your memory with me and strive to reflect the love and joy you brought to this world. I love you, my beautiful friend...
