“ I'm sorry for your loss. I lost my father last year so I can understand your pain. Death is never easy to accept which is why it's called an enemy in the Bible at 1 Corinthians 15:26. Jesus gave us a hope in the Bible at John 11:25: "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." So, we will be able to see our loved ones again by means of the resurrection. Then we will never have to lose them again. Why can we say that? Because God has promised us this in the Bible at such scriptures as Isaiah 25:8, Isaiah 26:19, and Revelation 21:3-5. Isn't this good news? Please read these scriptures in your own Bible.
Sincerely, Ms. Simmons

“ Talk about a lady we could look up to! Even after a stroke at 26 left her right hand and leg crippled, she could do anything she wanted to with "one good hand". How strong of a woman she really was! We all could see how she loved people and found positive in everybody and that is a great example for us all to follow! Our loss is Heaven's gain! Love ya, Maw!

“ We all have very wonderful memories of our Grandmother (Maw maw). She has always been a beautiful flower in the making for God's flower garden. There's no greater joy than knowing that we can see her again one day. She truly loved everybody and we love her just as she loved others. May she rest now in the arms of Jesus.

“ I was so sorry to hear about your mother passing. She was a very good woman and she will be very much missed. I was sitting here thinking about when I was growing up and I would come over to her house and spend the day and how much fun i had. And she was so sweet to me and she trested me just like I was one of her own kids. I loved her and I will miss her very much. Glenda McNeal Haynes
All of you are in my prayers
