“ It's still hard to believe Lynn is gone to Heaven to sing with the angels. The last time I saw her at my church in Vincent, we prayed together at the altar. It's a sweet memory of a kind lady who loved her children and family wholeheartedly...

“ Dear Jennifer and James, your children and your family members. We are sad for you. Our prayers are with you. You carry Lynn's love in your hearts and that will also carry you through times that are hard, times when you give thanks, and even the times when you laugh with the memories. Grief grabs us at the most surprising of times - with that memories flood our hearts. Our love is coming to all of you. Rosalie and Ken Grosch

“ My Prayers going up for your family! I went to school with Lynn she was the sweetest lady and a Beautiful Lady. It wasn't long ago that I seen her and it was just like we had never been away from each other. I know she will be missed and loved by all who knew her.

“ While I never met Ms. Lynn, I know her daughter Jennifer. Working with Jennifer gave me insight into what a wonderful person her mother was. Jennifer is so kind and such a hard worker. Ms. Lynn did a wonderful job raising her children and I know she was proud of all of them. Prayers and healing for all the family members.

Lynn was a friend for many years. I am so sorry I didn't get to see her while in the hospital. She was a good person and will definitely be missed by many. My prayers go out to everyone who loved Lynn, and especially her kids, whom I dearly love. (Jason, Kyle, Jennifer, an Zac). Memories are one thing nobody can ever take away from us. May God Bless Lynn's family and comfort them with peace during this very sad time.
