“ Sweet, sweet, Miss Margaret. What a gem she was and what an ever faithful servant for the Lord.
She was an organizer extraordinaire, never complaining and never expecting anything in return. I loved her so much more than she ever knew because she never seemed to understand just how special she was.
I will miss her but what a homecoming that must have been when Jesus wrapped His arms around her.
Miss Margaret was the walking, talking, picture of humility.....just like Jesus!
You will never be forgotten. 🌹

“ Loved sharing a trip to the Senior Adult Conference with Ms Margaret about 11 years ago. She always had a smile and a hug when I saw her at church. She was a precious lady!

“ We are First cousins , Uncle James and our mama was brothers and sister . We love to go visit what we called the country and see them all. We would go 5th Sunday in May, always going to church and eating on ground of the church and then going to Uncle James house and of course we had to eat with Aunt Louise and Uncle James and mama and papa Hasley house. Margaret will be miss but always be remembered.
