“ My thoughts are with you at this very difficult time. As you know, I knew Mary Frances very well when we were children. Even then, she was already so lovely and full of adventure. I knew both of you in separate parts of my life and when I learned that you had found each other, I was so pleased. I am grateful that I was able to speak with Mary Frances on the phone after she became Mrs. Knowles. I know you will miss her terribly and so I pray that you will be given that peace which passes all understanding. With loving thoughts...

“ Dear Bill: I was extremely sorry to learn of your wife's death, and wanted to extend my most sincere condolences over your overwhelming loss. There is little one can say about the loss of a loved one at a time of bereavement such as this, but I hope you will keep burning in your mind the inexhaustible memories of your life together, and let that undying loveliness help to sustain you. "Weeping may endure for the night, but joy comes in the morning." Psalms 30:5 Your inspiring memories together are beyond the cruel reach of the grave, and will live forever in your heart and soul. Memories are a gift of God that death cannot destroy.
