“ I forgot to mention a special time. Camping in the back of the pick-up on the shores of the lake, me cooking over the open fire- porkchops, pretty good, too- for the first time and water skiing at sunup. Really fun time. Kayron

“ I remember Mary as being a great aunt- stock car races, swimming, sitting around talking with the grown-ups. I remember how good she was to Mother and Daddy (Bob and Avis). And to Mama and Granddaddy. We had fun when she and Mother were making Dian's wedding dress and my Maid of honor's dress. And I remember that wonderful, best ever banana pudding and as close as you can get to Mama's Take Your Time Chocolate Pudding. Mary always made me feel accepted just the way I am. Although I haven't seen her regularly for a long time, I will miss her and always treasure her memory. RIP Mary. I love you, Kayron
