“ I sure do miss my sweet sister Mary. I am refered to my sibilings as ""The Momma""of our family. I sure do miss her more than anything. I know she is not suffering anymore and she said many times her nephew, Daryl Dorough, who passed away 1 1/2 yr.ago was coming to get her, and I know he and God had a good talk about her joining together in Heaven so she would be healed...It is so tough to loose her and I know I'll see her again one day with a lot of our loved ones who left us too soon!!Until we meet again, I Love You, my sister Mary Ellen!!!!

I have known Maryellen since she & Greg were in their dating years. They got married and became our neighbors and we're just like family to us. We are going to miss her so much. She always had a smile on her face and so friendly to everyone who met her. I am so thankful for having her friendship. We are praying for Greg & the family during this time.

“ My memories of Mary Ellen go back to our childhood. She was just a few months older than me and we always had a great time when she and Aunt Dovie and the rest of the family would come visit which was most weekends. We talked about these weekends together many times-how they would help us shuck corn, shell peas, cut okra, and Moma would always cook fried chicken for all of us. Because there were so many of us, the adults would eat first and then all of us kids would eat. We, the girls-Mary Ellen, Novia & Shelia & I would have the "privilege" of washing the dishes and cleaning the kitchen. I always admired her long dark hair and thought she was one of the sweetest people I knew. My heart breaks for the loss of her and all she's been through. She had just had her breast surgery when Moma passed away & came to the visitation in spite of all the pain and discomfort she must have felt. She didn't even tell us about it until later because she knew my brothers & me were going through enough at the time. That's just Mary Ellen's way, thinking of others before herself. George and Bill are in Washington D.C. I talked with them earlier and they're both so sorry they're not home We will truly miss her and will never forget her and all the fun we had as kids. So happy she's in the loving arms of our Lord and reunited with family members and friends who have gone on before. Sending my love and condolences to Greg, Novia, Sheila, Albert & Anthony & all who have had the joy of sharing their life with her. Rest in peace Mary Ellen. I look forward to seeing you again someday.
