“ Jean was my oldest friend for 49 Years. We met when we were in nursing school. We survived nursing school because of our friendship. We shared happy times and painful times. She always had a positive attitude no matter what was going on in her personal life. She never had a bad word to say about anyone.

She was creative and could have a party for any occasion at the drop of a hat with things she had on hand. She always made birthdays special for her kids even though she was a single mother. Jean lived her faith and was an example of God's good work.

She always wanted to write, so she took a creative writing course and wrote a "Mini-book" about her life called A DIFFERENT WORLD.

She inspired me to do many things I would not have done without her encouragement. For that, I gave her a pig she named Baby.

As we grew older we saw each other less, but we called each other often. I thank God for putting Jean in my life. Love your Mississippi friend and nursing sister
