“ I know you were grown but in my mind's eye, you have and will always be that little boy with the smile that lit up your whole face and had that mischievous twinkle in your eyes. All of you kids remain this way, to me. Sort of like my mind keeps you all in some sort of Never Never Land. Even though you were grown, with babies of your own, you were still way too young to lose. I will take comfort in knowing you were greeted by Mary, Aunt Pheobie, and Uncle Bill, along with several others who we have lost through the years. Rest easy, my dear cousin. Rest in the arms of Jesus. Til we meet again. ~ Love, Tangie
