“ Aunt Nancy was the most lovable aunt that anyone could ask for. Her smile would light up the room and her laugh was so contagious. Sometimes we would not even know why we were laughing, but we would start giggling even more just because we both didn't know why each other was laughing, and what we were laughing at. ??? I guess we both just like to laugh. She made every moment special, and was always looking forward to having some type of fun. I will miss her greatly, and I loved her so much.
