

Nancy Ann Jeter

February 8, 1942 - June 10, 2025

Nancy Jeter, 83, passed away on June 10, 2025, at the home of her son in Birmingham, AL. A family memorial service will be held at a later date.

Nancy was born on February 8, 1942, in Columbia, TN. She is preceded in death by her husband, Dr. William C. Jeter (Dub); mother, Alma Worthington; father, Ted Johnson; brother, Jimmy Johnson; step-father, Harvey Worthington and granddaughter, Kaylee Jeter.

She is survived by her five children: Cathy Scroggins (Wade), Mark Jeter (Karen), Brian Jeter (Shelley), Ben Jeter (Dee) and Lynda Johnson (Delaney), 12 Grandchildren, 10 Great-grandchildren, numerous nieces, nephews, and longtime friends.

As a child, her family moved to Dade City, FL, where she attended and graduated from Pasco Comprehensive High School in 1960.

On June 15, 1962, Nancy married her High School sweetheart, Dub, in Dade City, FL. Together they raised their 5 children, whom she was always very proud and loved deeply. During their time living in Dade City, Nancy managed their home and their children's extracurricular activities, as well as managed the administrative duties in Their family owned a veterinarian clinic. In 1985, Nancy and Dub relocated to Tallahassee, FL, where she had the pleasure of hosting grandkids for regular visits, staying active in the Church, and caring for her aging mother and aunt.

In 2015, Nancy and Dub moved to Columbiana, AL, to live out their farm life dream, where she enjoyed raising chickens, miniature horses, and their two dogs Rascal and Sabastian. She also enjoyed taking art classes, gardening, hosting family visits and holidays, and interior design (rearranging furniture).

Nancy was a devoted wife, mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother. She was a faithful Christian, a good friend, and always willing to help someone in need. She was the glue that held the entire family together and will be greatly missed.
