

Ola Dean Coleman

August 13, 1927 - July 27, 2023

Obituary for Ola Dean Coleman Ola Dean Coleman, age 95, of Chelsea, passed away on July 27, 2023.

A graveside service will be held at 8:00 AM at Hubbard Cemetery on County Road 47. The service will be led by her grandson, Shane Hughes. Bolton Funeral Home is directing.

Born Ola Dean Ray on August 13, 1927 in ("Raytown"), Shelby County, AL to parents Olice and Elzie Ray. She married Kelley Franklin Coleman on July 4, 1947, and they were married for 67 years until his death in 2014.

Dean worked hard at several jobs during her life, but she took great pride in her school bus route and cared deeply for those students. She loved to cook for her family and was also known for preparing and sending "condolence food" to friends all around the community. She was a master cook, but none could compare to her pound cake or turnip greens. She always made time to crochet baby gift items and holiday decor.

She had been a resident at Columbiana Health and Rehab since 2018 and was under the care of New Beacon Hospice.

She is preceded in death by her parents and two of her siblings: Ila Marie (Pete) Black and Willard Ray, her husband: Kelley; her son: David Coleman, and grandson: Randy Turner Coleman.

She is survived by her son: Randy D. Coleman, (Wanda), daughter: Janice Seale, (Donney), 7 grandchildren; 10 great-grandchildren; 1 great-great grandchild, her sisters: Jo Farr, Carolyn Dennis, and Judy Davis, all of Shelby County

“ I was one of Ola Deans children on her bus. She Loved everyone us and She was a very Special Person. She would pull the Bus to the side of the ride and we would have to sit there till everyone got quiet. Then we would take off again. I have so many memories of my Bus rides. I Loved her and all of her family. I am so Sorry for your Loss! Praying for all of your Family! I Send my Love and Prayers!
