“ What can I say about Aunt Ozelle? A unique name for a unique lady...as beautiful inside as she was outside. Ozelle always called me Honey. I'm not sure if it was actually a term of endearment or that she had so many nieces and nephews that she couldn't keep us straight. She loved being in her yard, which was evident by the numerous plants and flowers that grew there. The birds love Ozelle's yard too. I think that is what I associate with her the most... flowers, birds and a beautiful smile. Maybe Ozelle will care for the flowers in heaven and call the angels "honey".
