Born on January 8, 1946, in rural Shelby County, she was the beloved daughter of Louise and Wade Maske. She was preceded in death by her parents; her brother; Don Maske; her husband, Jerry Wood; and her youngest son, Heath Wood

She is survived by her son, Dewayne Wood, and granddaughter, Delana Wood.

Patsy was known for her faith, kindness, generosity, strength, and courage. She dedicated her life to Jesus and to loving her family, as written in the Bible. She was a light in the community and brought a smile to every room she walked into. She found joy in church, her garden, cooking, and providing for her family. Her home was always filled with comfort, laughter, and warmth.

To her granddaughter, she was "Honey," a name that became part of her identity over time - a strong woman who always provided advice and unconditional love. She will be forever missed but remembered in our hearts.

She is now with her family in heaven, catching up with Jesus.
