“ Paul and I started working at Southern Research about the same time. He was my “computer guy” and then quickly became my friend. I found out he had a Volkswagen and the conversation thereafter never ended. We talked about music, food, VW’s, our families, his antique radio projects, etc. We were lunch buddies. A few years ago, he gave me a cutting of his Mom’s eyelash begonia. I always think of Paul and his Mom, when I look at it. This past weekend, I planted a rooted piece from that begonia. Paul was in my thoughts. It was though we were making a connection before he was to leave. Our correspondence was an email in mid-February. He mentioned he was almost bed-ridden. I replied with questions, but never received a reply. I will miss him dearly. He was a great guy and a great friend. He was always concerned and eager to help. He was funny. If someone could reach out to me, I would appreciate it so much. S.nash1024@gmail.com

“ I am so saddened for your loss. I got to know Paul when he was employed at Southern Research. When I had issues with my computer, Paul was my contact person to solve. Having graduated from High School with Paul's mother Sandra, and being from the same home town,we always enjoyed chatting .Great guy and I know he will be missed.

“ I worked with Paul at Southern Research. He was always kind and willing to help those of us who are computer illiterate. After I was diagnosed with ovarian cancer, he and I would discuss our ordeals in dealing with cancer. My deepest condolences to his family and friends.
