“ Mimi, I am so very sorry to learn of Peggy passing into Heaven. When I worked at STMC, and she worked at the next cubicle over, we shared a lot of good times. I remember one Halloween, she came dressed as an old man with snuggled teeth. She was a hoot all day. We laughed and laughed at her. She and I shared a lot of spiritual conversations about when we died, and what Heaven would be like. Well she beat me to Heaven, so she is finding out first. You had a wonderful Mother Mimi. A Mother who sacrificed for all of you, loved all of you, and cared for all of you. Hugs Mary Jo May
