“ I'm sorry for your loss. I lost my father last year so I can understand your pain. Death is never easy to accept which is why it's called an enemy in the Bible at 1 Corinthians 15:26. Jesus gave us a hope based on the Bible at John 11:25: "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." So, we will be able to see our loved ones again by means of the resurrection. At that time we will never have to lose them again. Why can we say that? Because God has promised us this in the Bible at such scriptures as Isaiah 25:8, Isaiah 26:19, and Revelation 21:3-5. Isn't this good news? Please read these scriptures in your own Bible. Sincerely, Ms. Simmons

“Peggy & Family, The Hughes family will always cherish the special relationships that our family had with Mr. Frank, Mrs. Eula, Ralph, and Clyde. Ralph was always the model of hard work, sound judgment, kindness, and pleasant demeanor. When people say "they don't make them like they used to", they had our special McEwen friends in mind. We will always love and cherish your family.

“We are saddened with you at the loss of Mr. McEwen, but we rejoice that he goes before us to join our Lord Jesus whom he trusted with his life. We will miss his warmth, friendly spirit, and love. As you said, he was a friend to everyone he met. As the Lord appoints men as fathers, he faithfully represented our Heavenly Father through his life here. May the Holy Spirit comfort you during this time and you experience the love of Christ our Savior in the burden of his passing. "Jesus said..., 'I am the resurrection and the life; he who believes in Me will live even if he dies, and everyone who lives and believes in Me will never die. Do you believe this?'"
