“ We are so sorry to hear about Ramona. We just found out today at the same time we found out about Beth. Both of them together now with no pain or illnesses and no tears, only joy. God was ready to bring both of them home. We are so thankful he shared them with us. Our lives were inspired by both of them. Ramona was the sweetest person and never said a bad thing about anyone. Even though we moved from Shelby, we will still be thinking of her and her family and friends. We will really miss her.

“ Don't Cry For Me Don't cry for me, I am not gone, but simply sing a different song. You'll find me where the flowers grow, in each spring breeze or gentle snow, in every newborn baby's cry or drifting summer clouds on high. From quiet wood to crystal brook, I'll be everywhere you look. Transformed by God and now at peace, and filled with love to never cease, my quest to always fill your heart, with endless joy while we're apart. So shed no tear, nor grief prolong, don't cry for me, I am not gone. I will miss you Ramona, but I will never forget you. You fought the good fight without complaining. An inspiration to all who knew you. God Bless you and your family
