“ I am so sorry to learn of Randy’s death. Randy was one of the most genuine and most kind gentlemen I have ever met. He was always there to help whomever needed his help and I have fond memories of him going back for most of my life. On behalf of the Blalock and Moore families of Fourmile, please accept our deepest condolences.

“ Randy was much younger than I, but I remember him as a child and youth. I especially remember his mother, Mrs. Emmy, who was my 2nd grade teacher. Thoughts and prayers for the family. I know that he was a caring person who loved his town and his school. RIP, Randy McDonald.
