“ I am so truly sorry to hear of the death of my childhood friend Richard Perkins. It is so odd that I was speaking to someone at work this morning about Richard, growing up on the Coosa River and about the ferry. His mom, Ms Pearl cared for me several times when I was a kid, making a poultice for a head wound, mixing up a concoction to help me get over chicken pox. But now, Richard... we rode the bus together for years and were known to do some crazy things. I never knew anyone who had to take so many English classes to graduate either! :) When I went off to college, my mom called Richard to bring over his truck and haul off all my comic books because she thought I wouldn't mind if Richard had them...lol;... never asked him about those...:) He was a good friend, and although I totally lost track when he went into the Navy, I have never forgotten him. RIP old friend. We'll be fishing on the River Jordan one of these days. David Horton
