“ Dear Mary Gene and Family,

My heart was broken when I learned of Bobby's death. We were classmates until we graduated from high school at Wadley. You and I met at the WHS 50th class reunion and you took a picture of my haircut for you said you wanted your hair cut like mine. We also spoke on the phone for quite some time about my grandson, Joe Mask, who was looking for a place for him and his pregnant wife, Emily, to live, for Joe was to be a funeral director at Bolton Funeral Home. You suggested Calera and that is where they lived until Joe transferred to Quattlebaum Funeral Home in Roanoke. I'll never forget how nice and helpful you were, and I am deeply sorry for your and your family's loss.
