“ Rob was as good as gold. I'll always be endlessly grateful to him and Jane for welcoming me into their family. When I was in Texas and made monthly trips to BHM, they gave me a key to the house and always had "my" bedroom waiting. We looked forward to our morning coffee klatches and took such pride in Tyler. Rob worshiped Jane and was devastated when we lost her to COVID. He tried desperately to move on. But some burdens are hard to bear. In thinking about Rob since his death, I have repeatedly found myself humming lines from a Blaze Foley song, two listed below. Somehow, I've found them to be comforting.

*-If I could only fly, if I could only fly
I'd bid this place goodbye, to come and be with you-*
