“ I will never forget Rod's smiling face and positive attitude. It was obvious that he had a big heart and loved Cherry and Shea dearly, as well as many other members of his family. Living across the street from him, I often admired how immaculate he kept his yard. He was a good neighbor and friend who I appreciated for giving an encouraging word to both my children, Shawn and Lisa. He was definitely a light in his community and a shining example of a good Christian. Rod will leave a void in the hearts of all who loved him and called him a friend.

“ Dennis and I will always treasure the fond memories we have of being with Rod and his family, even though Rod and Cherry moved away about 30 yrs ago we have still remained very close friends. It truly broke our heart to learn of his passing we knew he wasn't in the best of health for several years, but he always was upbeat, laughing and always smiling. We will surely miss him. -Our hearts of sorrowfulness go out to the family we love dearly and hope that they can find comfort in the Lord. Rest in peace Rod.
