“Sean was the sweetest, kindest soul. He was very gifted in building things with his hands and very bright. He had a servant’s heart and was eager to help anyone in need, which made him very vulnerable. He loved the Lord and shared Him with everyone.” -Nana

“My baby boy was the light in the dark. He never missed a chance to try and make someone smile and that smile would light up the room. He was my mini-

me. He loved his family but most of all he loved God. He never missed an opportunity to tell people about Jesus. My heart will never be the same. I will love you always my baby.” -Mama

“Sean was the most talented young man I have ever seen. He could do anything he set his mind on doing, it didn't matter what it was. He had the biggest heart and loved wholeheartedly. Seeing him smile could light up the darkest room. The excitement in his voice every time he would talk about his next project he had planned always brightened my day. I have so many wonderful memories of him that I'll always have in my heart.” -Dad (Jamie)

“Sean was the best brother anyone could ever ask for. He was quick to come back with anything you threw at him, but quicker to forgive anybody for anything. He was as tough as a box of nails, as stubborn as a fence post, but he was my best friend. I will miss him dearly.” -Keanan

“Sean worked with his hands, building, carving, or just taking something apart. His hands were rough and scarred, even at a young age. He had hands like a man. He would buy an old axe and put a new handle on it, then bring it and show me. He would find an old rusty piece of steel and beat it into something useful. He showed me Jesus came to take junk and turn it into something wonderful. We are fearfully and wonderfully made. Psalm 139:14” -Papa

“ I remember watching both boys growing up from little guys in church at Antioch always well mannered and quiet. And I remember them being baptized as they grew up a little more. They have grown into nice young men and this week, i just can't imagine the pain and loss in your hearts and minds as you are facing this tragedy. Sean lives on in each of your hearts and is with our Heavenly Father walking the Streets of Gold. My thoughts and prayers are with you all right now and I'm here for you. God be with you.

“ A few weeks ago I got to meet this young man while substitute teaching. I watched him do the right thing when so many others did not. I only got to chat with him for about 30 minutes but he definitely made an impact on me. I was so impressed that he chose to do the right thing that day.

“ Sean will be remembered for his kindness and thoughtfulness. I met him when he was 2 years old, and thought he was the cutest, sweetest little boy. He had a mischievous grin, and was "all boy". Mike and Tina, you raised Sean and Keenan in the fear and admonition of the Lord. He inherited his kindness and willingness to pitch in and help from your examples. You helped them to memorize and hide scripture in their hearts, and everyone who knew Sean when he was little remembers he could recite long verses and even whole passages at a young age.

My mom and others from Antioch have mentioned so many stories this past week of how kind and thoughtful Sean has been to them over the years and especially in the last few months. He was always so good playing with my boys who are a few years younger than him.

Tina, Mike, Jessica, Keenan, and all of Sean's loved ones; we are praying for the Lord to be your comfort and peace now and forever.

*Love,
Ron & Ricci Stead*
