“ I have such fond memories of Sam because my son was known as Sam A. and he was known as Sam B. The two Sam's started to "Play School" at the trade school and went through Shelby Elementary together...always Sam A. and Sam B. Deepest Sympathy to the family.

“ I'm sorry for your loss. I lost my father last year so I can understand your pain. Death is never easy to accept which is why it's called an enemy in the Bible at 1 Corinthians 15:26. Jesus gave us a hope based on the Bible at John 11:25: "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." So, we will be able to see our loved ones again by means of the resurrection. At that time we will never have to lose them again. Why can we say that? Because God has promised us this in the Bible at such scriptures as Isaiah 25:8, Isaiah 26:19, and Revelation 21:3-5. Isn't this good news? Please read these scriptures in your own Bible. Sincerely, Ms. Simmons

“ Please accept my sympathies on your loss. I knew "Sweet Pea" as I grew up in Shelby, brother of Lynn Merrell and Pattie Merrell Brasher. I made some pictures of Fonzie in 1958 when he was building some boats for rent on the Coosa River. My older brother, Mathis, was a friend of Junior, Fonzie's son. Once, when I walked into Sadie's store, some 35 years ago, she said: "Why, Mathis, I thought you was Lynn." I said: "Neither. I'm Howard," and we had a good laugh. I'm sorry this is not a time for laughter, but wanted to share some memories with you. Your memories of Sammie are a gift of God that death can never destroy, but remain with you forever. Jesse H.
