“ I too had the pleasure of working with Sandra for many years. She was all about all of her "grand-babies", as she called them. Many of us at the office called her "Granny", not a reference to her age, but to acknowledge the endearment she held for them, as well as a nod to her wisdom, and knowledge.

Her children, grandchildren, and eventually great-grandchildren were her life. She was so "into" all things that were going on in their lives, and was always doing special things for them. Whether it was a trip to the beach, or camping at Tannehill, these are sure to be cherished memories that they will always have.

Each year, as Christmas approached, she could hardly wait to begin shopping for those extra special things she knew they would love. Her office would soon take on the appearance of a layaway storage area at a department store.

She will be greatly missed.

“ Sandra and I worked together for many years. She was a great friend and co-worker. We had some great times and we had some rough times, but our work family was awesome and we were just like family, we supported each other and respected each other. We will all miss Sandra but her memory will live on. God bless her wonderful family and give them comfort in this most difficult time!!
