“ Aunt Sarah was such an inspiration to all of her nieces and nephews. She was a great example of a true lady. When we were young she made sure she played with us whenever we were at Grandmother and Pops. She would also get on to you real fast if you were doing something you were not suppose to be doing! She was an angel of God and will be missed by her oldest sister, Violet, me, my husband, Douglas, and my sister, Joy. Appreciation goes out to our Whitten cousins who took care of her for many years.
