“ David, Don and I are so very sorry for the loss of your sweet, precious wife, Kay. You and Kay have been such good and caring friends to our son, Craig. He is already feeling the pain of her death. I am so glad he has been there for you. I, too, will miss talking with Kay. I feel blessed to have had her as a friend, even for a short time. I know God will continue to give you strength to face each day. We will continue to pray for you as you face each day without Kay. We will see you in a few weeks when we come to Maylene. “ My heart breaks for you in the loss of your precious daughter, knowing that there is no bond greater than between a Mother and her child. I am praying for the Lord Jesus Christ, to hold you and your family in his arms and take away the pain and suffering that only he can do.

“ I remember Kay helping us old ladies with the crafts for the children during VBS at Wilsonville Baptist Church and what a fine job she did. She was a sweet loving young lady. The lit candle is for the light of love she brought into your lives. It also signifies the gift she was to you & your family. Joan, I love you so much & my heart is breaking for you. I'm praying the Holy Spirit will comfort you with the peace only He can give. May God hold you close in his arms to ease some of the pain. Remember you have many friends & loved ones who share your grief & pain. I am always available if you need me, anytime, day or night & would love to help in any way I can.
