“ A very special lady. I had many special days at the pool at Logan landings. We would always gather up with a few close friends in the morning time. She and her husband was one of my first friends there. I always enjoyed watching her and her husband riding around the lake together. May God bless her family. Heaven sure gained a angle

“ Kay was such a special person. She touched so many lives and always left them feeling they were better themselves just for knowing her. She will always have a place in my heart.
