“Hill Family, I am so sorry we were not able to be with you during this difficult time. I met Shirley just after Christmas 2009. I loved praying with her and talking to her. She so wanted to be well and able to care for her family. I was so impressed with her laughter and love for others despite her long health problems and circumstances. She loved you all very much and made sure I knew all about you. She would listen to church service via cell phone on most Sundays and Wednesday Nights as she was able. She always wanted prayer and wanted to feel close to the Lord. Her heart desired to be in church and she desperately wanted to once again be able to attend regularly. I wish everyone had the heart and love she had. I will miss visiting with her. She was a precious person and my friend. She taught me what longsuffering means both physically and spiritually. I will never forget the connection we had and the love I felt. She became my Sister. Thank you Lord for Mrs. Hill. Sister Tracy Brasher- United Pentecostal Church Vincent, AL

“I'm sorry for your loss. I lost my father so I can understand your pain. Death is never easy to accept which is why it's called an enemy in the Bible at First Corinthians 15:26. But Jesus gave us a hope based on the Bible at John 11:25: "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." So, we will be able to see our loved ones again by means of the resurrection. Then we will never have to lose them again. Why can we say that? Because God has promised us this in the Bible at such scriptures as Isaiah 25:8, Isaiah 26:19, and Revelation 21:3-5. Isn't this good news? Please read these scriptures in your own Bible. Sincerely, Rosemarie

“ To the Hill & Parson Families: How often we think about our good ole days through our lives and if we could just go back to them one day, what happiness we'd have! Shirley is just where she'd want to be, with God & her Daddy, sisters & brothers. I can remember us sitting on our porch as a teenager, singing one of her favorite songs, "This World Is not My Home", now she's made it home. May God bless all of you through this tough time.

“ To the Hill & Parson Families: I'm am so sorry to hear of Shirley Mae's passing, I will keep all of you in my thoughts & prayers. I will always remember her in the good times of our life when things were good and all was happy. I will surely remember her being happy and go lucky type of person when she was growing up. You can rest in peace knowing she is with God & all of her family members again. May God Bless all of you all. Mary Ellen falkner roach
