“ Loved hearing Tammy on Finebaum. What a die hard loyal fan. But from everything I have read, what a great mom, grandmother, and person. As an Aggie fan, I honor Tammy's memory, and will miss hearing her voice and passion on Finebaum's show. May Jesus Christ ease the Bullard family's wounded hearts and bring comfort to them in this time of mourning for Tammy and the precious little one as well. - Erick in Minnesota

“ May you RIP, Dear Tammy. I never met you, but you were a hoot on the Paul F. show. Once I heard this, I was in shock, and watch the tribute to you on the Paul F. show, my husband and I hearts broke and tears began to follow. You were loved by so many as shown. You will be missed, may your family find peace and comfort, knowing you'll see them again one day. Prayers to them during this difficult time, during the holidays.

“ So many memories of an Auburn football loving, crazy passionate fan. You and Princess Adaleigh snuggle up and get rested up before the game. Gonna miss you ripping and carrying on, supporting that team. Ya'll rest peacefully tonight...cause Sat., Tammy I know you'll be whooping and sending in plays!

*I worked with Tammy for years, we were friends, we had a lot of great laughs and happy times. Tammy is one of the sweetist and most friendly person I've ever met; always smiling and worked hard at anything she done. She is a sweetie...I said is because she's in heaven and she and her granddaughter still lives. May GOD cuddle and cradle the hearts of their families. Weeping may endure for a night but GOD promises JOY in the morning.
To my friend 'Tammy....WAR EAGLE TO YOU SISTER!!!*

I never met this lady, but I knew her. I have kept the family in prayer, Tammy touched not just the state of Alabama, but the whole of the SEC. People all over the US, even out of the country, knew Tammy. A huge heart of pure gold. You'll be missed, sweetie, but always, always you will be remembered, and not just as the AU Tigers superfan. Much love and prayers from this Alabama fan. We are all so sad, what a loss for the family, and for all of us. For you, War Eagle 🦅 Fly

“ I was so shocked and saddened to hear about Tammy's passing. I do not know her nor your family personally but am an avid fan of The Paul Finebaum show. When Tammy called in my husband would holler, "Honey, Tammy's on" so that I could run to the TV and hear her enthusiastic voice and feisty banter. We are praying for all of you as you grieve. “ I will always remember Tammy as a happy person. If she had a bad day, she never showed it. She made a lot of my days at work better with her crazy jokes and was always happy and laughing. I haven't seen you for quite awhile but I will never forget you and your laughter. R.I.P. pretty lady.
