“ Loving, kind, generous man that would give you the shirt off his back.... I never called Terry and five minutes later he didn't roll up in my driveway... He was the best friend a man could ask for.... I have spent the last two days and nights angry at God... But I have come to believe that this terrible accident was the work of God.... He took Terry.... And spared him from the pain and misery he endured on a daily basis.... God delivered Terry from the eventual painful last days that he was facing... I know Terry is in a much better place, free from pain.... Rejoicing with our Lord.... Hallelujah and Amen

My heart is saddened by this accident that took Terry Gallops life. I praise God that he gave his life to Jesus, accepted him as his savior and was baptised two weeks ago. I went to the baptism and have some videos of the ones who were baptised. I am not technology savy but anyone who knows how to get theses from my phone to your is welcome. I did not know Terry personally but knew some of his family and love them very much. Am praying for all of you. God keep his hands upon you as you deal with this sudden death of a new Christian. Now you have hope of seeing him again in heaven.
