“ My prayers and condolences to Tommy's family, friends, and all that knew him. Tommy had an infectious laugh and sense of humor that could bring anyone to a smile. He inspired me in so many ways and will forever have an imprint in my heart. I'm so grateful for our friendship. I pray all that knew him can cherish the wonderful memories made, be filled with peace only God can fill, and may your spirit, Tommy, live forever into the lives of all you blessed just by being you. Tommy, you are loved and I pray you are held in our loving creators arms forevermore. ”

“ We met about three years ago. I was impressed with his wit, charm, southern-ness, and charisma. I vividly recall dinner in his home and his great respect for use of the family silver. Tommy was just...unique. Flawed, funny, and distinguished. He has always left an impression on my life.

And I was absolutely crushed on Friday when someone let me know he died Monday. A sickening emptiness. The details are irrelevant. The reality is surreal.

My acknowledgment of my own personal lack of depth as a Christian does not mean I am ignorant that there is only one real answer for the emptiness in everyone. The void that lingers has only one real solution.

Dark is this moment in time. I cannot fathom the grief of the Davis family. But I know how real my grief is that he is gone. I trust he finally has real peace. 💔

“ Tommy was a blessing to work for. He was a awesome boss and person. It was an honor and a pleasure to work for him. I love our office family. He treated me with respect and I was more than just an employee to him. He became a good friend. I miss him and our work family horribly. I will never find another boss like him!

“ I met Tommy over 20 years ago when we were both in college and working part time at Parisian in Montgomery. We stayed in touch over the years. He is hands down one of the most memorable people of my life. He was so generous with his gifts and he truly cared about people. He will be dearly missed.
