“ Virginia was a great Christian woman who was a pillar in our church. She was a great friend. She had a heart of gold and would help anyone that was in need.

“ Loved our visits to see our aunt. Where do we begin to tell all the stories and times shared with her. Coming from Florida to visit family in Alabama her house was always a perfect first night stop and she always welcomed us and we enjoyed seeing her. She was a different name to all who loved her. Aunt Nell to us, Ginny to some, Virginia to others and Gin to some.

“ Going to miss Virginia but I call her my "Gin" my "other Granny" so much. Been knowing her for over 17 years. Gonna miss the phone calls everyday when I get off work, going to church, helping her in the yard, grocery shopping, doctor and drug store visits, trips to the farmers market with her, and most off all sitting spending time eating pie and pizza. Wednesday was dedicated to "Gin" and whatever she needed or wanted me too. And I enjoyed every moment of it. Love you "Gin". You will live in my heart forever. Love always, Kim Boswell and family.
