“ I just found out about his passing. He had such a good heart and was so funny. I hadn't seen him since school, but he always had a beautiful smile and a joke to lighten the day. I'm so saddened to hear about him being gone. Thoughts and heartfelt prayers to his lovely family.

“ He took care of my daughter and made her happy. What more could a father ask for from a son-in-law? We will miss him. I personally am a better man to have been a little part of his life. Rest in peace Son.

“ The last time I saw you was in 2010 and I guess we just grew apart and went our separate ways, I didn't know you had passed until my mom called me yesterday and told me. You'll be missed by so many friends and family Walt, I'll be praying for your family. Rest in peace now

“ I'll always think of Walter Baker as Little Walter...I am so proud he carried his Uncles name, Walter Two Feathers with honor. This honor was brought out everyday with his giving spirit. Watching him grow up into a wonderful man was a gift for anyone. His heart was so big; big enough to help everyone, even strangers ...given a helping hand.

Rest those beautiful eyes and your amazing spirit...

You will be missed so much...love you ❤️
