

Wayne Wilber Jemison

October 23, 1940 - February 12, 2023

Wayne Wilbur Jemison, 85, went on to be with his Lord and Savior on Monday, February 13, 2023. He is survived by his loving wife of 57 years: Connie Jemison; his two sons, Alan (Diana) Jemison and Brad (Laura) Jemison; and six grandchildren: Austin Jemison, Anna Claire Jemison, Dylan Jemison, Bradley Jemison, Sarah Heasley, and Abby Pikula.

Wayne, the youngest of eleven children, was preceded in death by his parents: Fred Kyle and Ruby Vashtie Jemison; and his siblings: Pete Jemison, Frank Jemison, John Jemison, Harold Jemison, Charles Jemison, Edna Oakes, Janie Wyatt, Essie Jemison, and Jessie Mae King, and Maddie Jemison.

Wayne worked at Kimberly Clark Corporation for 45 years before retiring in 1999. He was a good and faithful servant of the Lord his entire life serving as a Deacon, Sunday School teacher, Youth leader and any other capacity that needed filling. He was a member of The Church at Brookhills and loved his Sunday School class, The Branches. You could find Wayne most mornings at The Huddle House in Chelsea, where he enjoyed eating, socializing, and sharing the Gospel of his dear Lord Jesus Christ over black coffee. Wayne never met a stranger and rarely went anywhere without running into an old acquaintance.

He will forever hold a special place in his family's hearts and will be greatly missed.

The family invites you to come and honor his life on Sunday, February, 19, at 3:00 PM at Harpersville Baptist Church. Visitation will begin at 2:00 PM. Jay Gordon is presiding and Bolton Funeral Home is directing.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the American Institute for Cancer Research at www.aicr.org/memory

“ I was very fortunate to have met Wayne at Huddle House where I work, he came in often and would visit and enjoy coffee. We talked a lot , we even cried a bit about his health problems, but before it was over he would make me laugh about something and always , always told me how much I was appreciated for what I do. He was a great man, he loved his wife , children and grandchildren. I will miss him so much. Fly high my dear friend. I know you will be watching over me and the gang at Huddle House.

“ I knew Wayne all my life as a family friend, but really got to know him while I worked at the Huddle House in Chelsea. He was a regular there and I was always happy to see him. He had the best attitude and outlook on life of anyone you ever met. He would always attract friends who were also eating there to his table and they would visit and reminisce together. I left the Huddle House late last year and hated that I would not be seeing him regularly as a result. He was a friend and I loved him. Rest in peace Wayne! Thankfully we will meet again one glorious day. Michelle

“ There are so many wonderful memories of Wayne He always had a smile on his face and was always willing to lend a helping hand or a listening ear. We ran into Wayne about a year ago and had breakfast with him. Even though it had been a couple of years since we had seen him, we picked up as if it had only been the day before. My family loved him and he will be missed. The best thing about Wayne is that he was a Godly man who loved Jesus and he made sure that everyone knew it!

“ Wayne Jemison was one of the best friends a person could have. I was honored to attend high school with Wayne at Vincent High School. He was the humor when things were tense, he was loyal to a fault, and you never had any question about his faith. I am a better person because of my friendship with this outstanding classmate.
